ORGANISERS

Department of Library and Information Science & Gautam Buddha Central Library, Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University, Lucknow

Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University (A Central University), was established on 10th January 1996. It is one of the premier Central Universities in the country and the jurisdiction of this residential University is over the entire state of Uttar Pradesh. The University is committed to evolve as a centre of excellence in the field of higher education. Its uniqueness is evident from its basic philosophy, policies and programmes, which are spelt out and enshrined in the University Act and Statutes. These academic programmes are also employment oriented and relevant for socio economic development of the country.

Department of Library and Information Science

The Department of Library and Information Science (DLIS) is functioning in the university since 1997. The aim is to provide modern curricula based LIS education to the students. The department is developing suitably trained human resource in the fields like library and information management, archival science, knowledge management and the like. The students are trained in order to undertake research and service oriented assignments on the basis of current market demand. The DLIS is offering Bachelor (BLIS), Master (MLIS), M.Phil., and Ph.D. Programmes in Library and Information Science.

Gautam Buddha Central Library

The Central Library was established in January 1998 to promote knowledge and application through its effective dissemination of knowledge and information. The Central Library of BBAU has named as Gautam Buddha Central Library after the name of Lord Gautam Buddha. The Library is governed by Library Advisory Committee body which functions under the chairmanship of Vice-Chancellor. The library acts as learning resource center of the University to supplement education and information needs of the faculty and students. The Library has been played a key role in generation, preservation and communication of knowledge for education and research of the university.

Lucknow City

Lucknow is the capital city of Uttar Pradesh and it has always been a multicultural city. Courty manners, beautiful gardens, poetry, music, and fine cuisine patronized by the Persian-loving Shia Nawabs of the city are well known amongst Indians and students of South Asian culture and history. Lucknow is popularly known as the City of Nawabs. It is also known as the Golden City of the East, Shiraz-i-Hind and The Constantinople of India.

The 'Muskuraiye Aap Lucknow Mein Hai' Welcome Sign says it all, it is basically a prediction than a statement that construes, days spent in this capital city will be the best memories you are going to have! Lucknow's exquisiteness makes one speechless, and it allures history buffs, foodies and explorers, big time. That Tunday ke Kebab, the Rahim ki Nihari, the fun outing at Kulkrail, the picnic at the Indira Dam; day exploration of Imambara, and the night-time hangout at Marine Drive never let one's hope down. Ringed around with rich artistic and cultural ambiance, Lucknow certainly calls out to be one of the best places to visit.
